

Writing Assignment 5

In this fifth and final writing assignment (worth 25 percent of your final grade), we will be taking the concepts we have learned this term and extending them to a somewhat more comprehensive project related to a profession of your choosing. If you do not yet know what profession you intend to pursue when you finish your degree, use this paragraph as an opportunity to explore a potential profession.

In completing this assignment, you need to:

- (1) Focus on a debatable topic related to your profession. Decide what argument you will make, and carefully consider the purpose and audience of your paragraph.
- (2) Gather at least one or two written and/or electronic sources to include in your paragraph.
- (3) Write a thorough paragraph in which you clearly and convincingly argue your claim, adhering to the elements of an effective paragraph.

Purpose: To argue in support of a debatable claim related to a profession of your choice.

Audience: Your choice. Be sure to attach a brief audience description to your draft, using proper APA formatting for an Appendix.

Due date: Sunday, August 14. Papers must be in proper APA format. Use proper APA in-text parenthetical citations, include an APA-formatted references page, and remember to include an Appendix to describe your audience.
